THE HOMESTEAD STRIKE.

The strikers at Homestead did not evince a very great desire yesterday to return to work and but few of them accepted the company's invitation to come back as individuals.

Manager Frick has plenty of other men, however, and the mills are now working. But how long will this last?
The strikers are becoming desperate and a change in their condition is imperative.

Of course as long as the militia stays at Homestead the non-union men now employed in the mills are sure of protection. But when this force is withdrawn will they be left in peace? The belief is that they will not and that more trouble will ensue.

This is a very grave condition of af-airs. It will be impossible to keep the soldiers at Homestead for any length of time as the expense is very heavy.
Twenty-two thousand dollars a day amounts to a good deal when the days are lengthened into weeks and the weeks into months.

The mill people absolutely refuse to compromise matters or recognize the Amalgamated Association. This they undoubtedly have a perfect right to do.
But if by their refusal it will be necessary to always keep a detachment of soldiers at Homestead to keep down the strikers the question assumes new phases. They cannot expect the Government to protect them forever by this large force of arms, and they ought to be willing to do all in their power to settle the matter.

A majority of the striking men have homes and families in Homestead.
There is nothing else there for them to do and they will not be driven away from home. It is a very grave condition of affairs and every effort should be made to bring about a change at once.

This should be particularly desired by the Republican managers. This trouble will cost them thousands of votes, and unless it is soon settled may alienate the workingman's vote almost entirely. Here is an excellent place for Chairman Carter to begin work.

An Excellent Quartette.

The Diamond Quartette Club, of Norfolk, are registered at Hotel Brunswick.
The quartette consists of F. H. Jeter, baritone; C. Bullock, first tenor; B. Gaskins, second tenor; L. Marshall, basso, under the management of P. Lansing.
The quartette went on a serenading tour last night and paid THE TIMES office a visit. The gentlemen are all excellent singers and make music that one never tires of listening to. They are on their way to the various summer resorts.

They Had Good Luck.

Capt. and Mrs. T. H. Bransford chaperoned a party of about twenty-five ladies and gentlemen on a fishing excursion on the James river near Glasgow yesterday. The day was spent in fishing, bathing and various other amusements. The party returned at 7 p. m. having caught a large number of fish.

His Skull Probably Fractured.

About 8 o'clock last night Henry White assaulted Milton White near the Park street bridge. A woman seems to have been the cause of the trouble.
Milton White received a blow on the head with an iron bar, and it is feared the skull is fractured. White made his escape after striking the blow and has not yet been captured. Both men are colored.

RICH NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR.

Chosen by Republicans of Michigan Over Major Pingree, of Detroit.

SAGINAW, July 22.—The Republican State convention yesterday nominated the following ticket:

For Governor—John T. Rich, of Elba.
For lieutenant governor—J. W. Giddings, of Wexford.

For secretary of State—John W.
Jochim, of Marquette.

For auditor—Stanley W. Turner, of Roscommon.

For auditor general—Garrett J. Dickema, of Ottawa.

Chairman Fitzgerald, of the committee on resolutions, then read the following resolution, which was adopted by the convention rising in silence:

"Resolved, That we express our sincere sympathy with that eminent Republican and statesman, James G.
Blaine, in the bereavement he has recently suffered in the loss of his son, and express a wish that his life in the future may be as full of honor and usefulness as in the past."

The platform adopted indorses the nominees of the national Republican convention, condemns long sessions of the legislature and the practice of railroad companies in giving passes to and the same being accepted by legislators and other public officials, favors the limitation of the legislative session, condemns the present State Democratic administration "for its subservency to the exactions of political demagogues who have forced up on the intelligent people of Michigan the nefarious Miner law," calls attention to the "brazen theft of the senate of this State during its last session by unlawfully and corruptly seating two usurpers," denounces the "unscrupulous gerrymander of Congressional, senatorial and representative districts;" commends the Republican party to all the voters of Michigan "as a party worthy of their support and deepest devotion," and lauds the protective tariff system.

A Pleasant Lawn Party.

A lawn party was given last evening on the vacant lot on Church street adjoining the residence of W. G. Evans, by the young ladies to a number of gentlemen friends. The lawn was most beautifully and artistically illuminated with Japanese lanterns, and at an early hour quite a bevy of beauty and their escorts assembled to enjoy the festivities of the occasion.

At 11 o'clock, after a most enjoyable evening to all, refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cakes and fruits.
Those present were the Misses Gish, Hughes, Lumpkin, Yager, Allen, Nellie Brown, Miss Brown, Pitzer, Deaton, Bessie and Georgia Crane, Johnson, Compton, Broistley and many others; and Messrs. Yager, Smith, Pitzer, Hel-vestine, White, Barksdale, Lumpkin, Bentley, Fetzer and Meadows. The chaperones were Mrs. Yager and Mrs.
Meadows.

An Enjoyable Spread.

At the conclusion of the sessions of the Southern League Friday, the officers of the building and loan associations of this city tendered to the visiting delegates a banquet at Rockledge Hotel, which was a most enjoyable affair. The spread consisted of seven or eight courses and Mumm's extra dry flowed to the heart's content. Roanoke's business men never do things by halves and they put forth their best efforts to entertain the visitors in befitting style. Among those who responded to toasts were Messrs. Kenward, of New Orleans, Mayor Ellison, of Richmond and Mayor Trout, of Roanoke.

The Picnic To-day.

The special train chartered by the Roanoke Machine Works Band will leave this morning at 8 o'clock for Rocky Mount, where a picnic will be given under their auspices. A pavilion has been erected and the full band, consisting of twenty-six pieces, will furnish music for the dancing. A game of ball will also be played in the afternoon on the grounds between the K. & S., of this city, and the Rocky Mounts. Messrs.
Baughman and Malone will furnish refreshments. The party will return at 7 o'clock this evening.

The Tabernacle Completed.

The new tabernacle being built at the corner of Belmont boulevard and Dale avenue will be ready for use tomorrow, and the Belmont Methodist Sunday-school will be held there at 9:30.
The pastor, Rev. Leroy F. Snapp, will preach there at night and hold prayer meeting on Friday nights. The ladies connected with the school will hold their first ice cream festival there on Monday and Tuesday nights, July 25 and 26.

Marriage and death notices from any place in Southwest Virginia will be published free as below.

A BIG LOBBY FOILED.

How an Attempt to Get Money From Lifesavers Proved Futile.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—There is an interesting story in connection with the passage of the bill increasing the pay of surfmen and keepers in the Life Saving Service. When the bill was introduced an ex-Representative from the South, who is now engaged in lobbying in this city, sent out a circular advising the surfmen to contribute $2 dollars each and the keepers $4 each to a fund for the prosecution of the bill. Had this scheme been carried out the enterprising lobbyist would have secured about $10,000.

Some of the life-savers, however, wrote to Representative Weadock, of Michigan, who had originally introduced the bill, and he immediately advised against any contribution. Thereupon the lobbyist wrote another circular, in which he vigorously denounced a member of the life-saving force who was urging the passage of the bill. This letter is now in the possession of the chief of the Life Saving Service. In this connection it is said to be an interesting fact that the postal clerks' bill, for the prosecution of which a fund was raised by subscription among the clerks, is still on the calendar.

HOPE FOR COL. H. CLAY KING.

His Friends Petition the Governor and Washington Authorities.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 22.—A new hope has been born in the breast of Col.
H. Clay King, condemned to be hanged on August 12 for killing David H. Poston. For several days he has been in a state of mental and physical collapse, but yesterday he brightened from some cause, known only to himself. The strong petition sent from Kentucky to the governor asking that his sentence be commuted is thought to have begotten the hope in Col. King's mind for better things. This morning Judge Greer returned from Washington city.
Several days ago he and Judge King, of Texas, went to Washington to make an effort to bring the case under Federal jurisdiction and secure a review of the law and facts before the Supreme Court.
The lawyer refused to discuss the matter, but it is thought from remarks that he dropped that there will be some action taken in the case by the Federal court.

Headquarters of the Republican Committee.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The Republican national committee has at last secured headquarters for the campaign. Negotiations have just been completed for a lease of the eighteen-room building, No.
578 Fifth avenue, which is conveniently near the Union League and Republican clubs and the Grand Central depot.

An Indiana Democratic Nomination.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 22.—The Democratic State committee last night nominated Hon. L. J. Hackney, of Shelby-ville, for supreme justice, in place of Jephtha D. New, who committed suicide.
It was decided to open the campaign with speeches in every county on September 10.

Editors Back From Boston.

The members of the Virginia Press Association, who went from Portsmouth to Boston, have returned, several passing through the city last night en route to their homes. They report having a most pleasant time, and speak highly of the manner in which they were entertained in Northern States.

AMERICAN POLITICIANS.

senator, rose in four years from the confederate ranks to a major generalship.

SENATOR BLACKBURN is one of the readiest of congressional speakers, and WHITELAW REID is the second candidate on the republican side for vice president who, prior to his nomination, had never been a candidate for an elective office. Chester A. Arthur was the first.

SENATOR PEPPER says that he "gets the most real fun in playing with children in the street. There is an abundant sincerity about their fun that you never find in the sports of folks that are old enough to be conscious of their dignity."

MINISTER COOLIDGE, as he appeared to the eyes of the Paris correspondent of the London News, is "white-haired, hale, of a straight carriage and direct manner. He strikes one as a man of intellectual as well as business tastes and pursuits."

building; sixteen floor, you know."
"Well?" "Asked me if I couldn't drop in on him some day."—Chicago Tribune.

Congressman Allen, of Mississippi, after making a speech in opposition to the expensive funerals of congressmen, says he received a letter from a constituent saying: "When you die, John, we won't ask congress to pay the expense of your funeral. You've got enough friends down here, John, to give you a respectable burial, and we would take pleasure in doing it."—

THEY TOOK OUT HIS RIBS.

And in Major Towne's Side Found a Quantity of Stony Substance.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Surgeons E. W.
Andrews and C. W. Cray, of the Medical Board of Pension Examiners, have performed a remarkable surgical operation on Maj. O. C. Towne, the veteran, who has been under their charge for some time. Major Towne resides at Argyle Park, and has been confined to his bed for nearly a year from a growing abscess in his right lung. Two months ago the lung was opened and the abscess cut and drained. Major Towne began to recover, but recently his condition became worse.

Last Sunday the surgeons determined on another operation, and removed the fourth, fifth sixth and seventh ribs.
This opening was large enough to admit Dr. Andrews' two hands. In this cavity the surgeons found a great quantity of stony substance, some of the pieces being as large as marbles and as hard as stone, while that which was in the bottom of the cavity was as fine as sand.
The walls of the cavity were also covered with the stony substance. Every particle of the stone was removed and the wound covered and dressed.

Twenty-four hours after Major Towne had improved wonderfully, and he now feels very much better and there is every prospect of his recovery.

Huntingdon's City Hall Wrecked.

HUNTINGDON, July 22.—Just as the members of the City Council had left the council chamber after their regular monthly meeting last night the entire eastern wall of the building collapsed, wrecking half of the building and burying beneath the debris the fire apparatus of two companies. The accident was due to the undermining of the City Hall by workmen who are erecting a business structure adjoining.

READ REMARKABLE STATEMENT.

I have suffered nine years with many severe symptoms. I had a continual burning in my eyes, nose and throat, frequent headache, nausea and vomiting; would often heave till my throat felt raw; my nose ran all the time caught cold easily and my throat would get very sore; had palpitation of heart and bad taste in mouth, and was very nervous; had wheezing and asthmatic attacks. But now, after two months' treatment by Dr. Coates, I feel entirely cured, and am in better health and feel stronger than I've been for many years.
